LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

Steps listed below:

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

As the premises does not, and contractually cannot, sell or permit alcohol, the principal driver of late-night crime and disorder is removed at source. The applicant will nonetheless put in place robust measures to manage any disruption arising from the late-night dispersal of patrons from licensed premises nearby:

- A digital CCTV system will cover the entrance, interior, till point and external frontage. Recordings will be retained for a minimum of 31 days and will be made available to the police and authorised officers on request, in compliance with data-protection law.
- Sufficient trained staff will be on duty throughout the late-night period to maintain control of the premises.
- The applicant will co-operate fully with the City of London Police and with any local business-crime-reduction partnership or Pubwatch scheme.
- The outdoor furniture is removable and will be withdrawn where necessary to prevent loitering or congregation, and the proximity of major transport links encourages customers to move on rather than gather outside.

c) Public safety

Yalla Beirut is an established food establishment in which the required fire-safety measures, ventilation and extraction are already in place and maintained. The following measures will protect the safety of customers, staff and the public during the extended hours:

- The capacity of the restaurant will be managed by staff so that it is not exceeded, and fire-escape routes and exits will be kept clear at all times.
- Delivery riders will be directed to a designated waiting area so that they do not obstruct the pavement or the highway, reducing the risk of collisions and congestion at the frontage.
- Fire-fighting equipment, electrical and gas installations and the extraction system will be maintained and tested in accordance with statutory requirements, and a current fire-risk assessment will be kept.
- First-aid provision will be available on site, and spillages will be cleaned promptly to prevent slips, supported by adequate lighting at the entrance.

- The premises will maintain a high food-hygiene standard and the applicant will comply with all food-safety requirements.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Because the operation is food-led rather than alcohol-led, the nuisance ordinarily associated with late-night venues is significantly reduced. The surrounding area is predominantly commercial and offices, with none or very few residential properties likely to be affected, and the public houses and bars in the vicinity are far more likely to generate disturbance than a restaurant. The applicant will nevertheless adopt the following controls:

- A dispersal policy under which staff will ask departing customers to leave quietly and with consideration for others; clear and polite signage will request the same.
- Any background music will be kept at a level that is not audible outside the premises, and doors and windows will be kept closed so far as is practicable to contain noise.
- A delivery-rider management plan: riders will use a designated waiting area, will be asked not to congregate or leave engines idling, and delivery platforms will be instructed accordingly.
- Waste will be stored in sealed containers and presented for collection only at reasonable hours; collections will not be scheduled during unsocial early-morning hours; and grease and refuse will be managed so as not to obstruct drains, consistent with the applicant's lease obligations.
- The frontage and any outdoor area will be cleared of litter regularly and at the close of each night, and fixed internal seating will be used to stagger dispersal onto the pavement.
- Odour will be controlled through the maintained extraction system.

e) The protection of children from harm

The safeguarding risk to children is low: the establishment does not serve alcohol, and the style and location of the operation mean that any children present are likely to be accompanied by family, including tourists and hotel guests. The applicant will adopt the following measures:

- Children visiting late in the evening must be accompanied by an adult, and staff will keep the dining areas supervised and remain alert to any unacceptable behaviour, including from intoxicated individuals arriving from elsewhere.
- No age-restricted products are sold on the premises.
- Staff will receive safeguarding-awareness guidance as part of their training, supported by the CCTV system.

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
 - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
 - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
 - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
 - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
 - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
