How to submit your application

Please return your completed application form to the Lido ticket kiosk. We will take the details from this form, take a photo of you, and issue your season ticket immediately.

During peak hours we may be busy and unable to immediately handle your application, though we endeavor to as soon as possible. We ask for your patience during these brief times.

Please ensure you bring payment and proof of eligibility for any concessions you are claiming. For full details of available concessions and their requirements, please see overleaf.

We accept cash, card and cheque. Cheques can be made payable to the City of London.

A season ticket entitles its holder to unlimited visits to the relevant facility during the period for which the ticket is valid. It must be presented on each visit and is not transferable.
