What government is older than parliament?

DISCOVER THE ANSWER AND MORE ON A GUILDHALL TOUR

Experience Guildhall's prestigious and often surprising history on a Guildhall Tour that will take you to parts of the building that most visitors never see.

Tours are led by a member of the City Guides, the official guides to the City of London. They are held on days when the City's Common Council meets so that visitors can stay on after the tour to experience democracy in action.

City Guides also run weekly tours of the art treasures of the Mansion House and lead daily walks around the Square Mile. Private tours of the Guildhall are available on request.
